

Young children of inmates may be referred to the Arizona Early Intervention Program (AzEIP).

The Arizona Early Intervention Program (AzEIP) is the statewide system of services and supports for families of infants and toddlers, birth to three years of age, with disabilities or delays. If you would like additional information, or to refer your child to AzEIP, please call their toll free number at 1-888-439-5609 or visit their web site at <http://www.azdes.gov/AzEIP/>.

For children three and older, or If you have concerns about your child's progress in school or in one of the following developmental areas: Vision, Hearing, Communication, Academics, Social/Emotional, Adaptive Behavior, and Physical Development - You can contact the school or home district in which your child is enrolled.

For more information, please visit the Arizona Department of Education's Child Find web site